

AWARDS

Over the years Cherry Tree Nursery has won many awards for its work, including the Allsebrook Training Award, the Beacon Community Builder Award, The East Dorset District Council Community Service Award 'in recognition of services to the local community', the Health Alliance Award, The Mayor of Bournemouth Volunteer group of the year award, the Nationwide Award for Voluntary Endeavour, and the Rotary Club Community Service Award.

In 2003 we won the Queen's Golden Jubilee Award for voluntary service by groups in the community. This was presented to volunteers by the Lord Lieutenant of Dorset, Capt Michael Fulford-Dobson, CVO, OBE, at his home in Cerne Abbas, and was followed by an invitation to a Royal Garden Party at Buckingham Palace.

In 2004 Cherry Tree was the overall national winner of the Schizophrenia Reintegration Award 'for outstanding achievement in helping people with schizophrenia reintegrate into society and move their lives forward'. Volunteers received this award at Claridges Hotel!
